

Full time position – Research Associate

Tata Institute of Social Sciences invites applications for a one year research study titled “Documenting Mental Health Practice with Trans Clients in India – a multi-centre, mixed method study.” The broad aim of the research is to study mental health professionals' perceptions, attitudes and practice with trans clients.

Duration of the Study: 12 months

Starting Date: 15th Feb, 2022

Last date for application: 8th Feb, 2022

Job Location: Bangalore

No of positions: 1

Qualification:

Minimum Requirement

- Postgraduate degree, M.A. in Social Work (specialization in mental health/ medical and psychiatric social work), M.A. Psychology (clinical, counseling) from a recognized university
- Candidate needs to have some prior research experience
- Candidate should have proficiency in English and Kannada.
- M.Phil in Psychiatric Social Work/ Social sciences with a focus on mental health/ Clinical Psychology from a recognized university is desirable.
- The candidate should have necessary research skills of data collection, transcription, data entry and analysis.

Job responsibilities:

The Research Associate will interview mental health professionals in Bangalore and hence needs to be comfortable with social interaction and being able to write/record while taking interviews.

The primary tasks of the research associate will be as follows,

Research related

- Data collection
- Transcription of interview data
- Data entry
- Data analysis
- Help in report writing and dissemination of research findings

Project Administration related

- Maintaining vouchers of expenses on the project
- Corresponding with and following up with the accounts and personnel departments at TISS, Mumbai on project reimbursements

The research associate will be required to locally travel in Bangalore city for data collection.

Salary:

The candidate will be paid a consolidated salary of Rs. 40,000/- per month.

Fieldwork expenses related to travel within the city, will be reimbursed according to TISS norms.

Job Location: In current circumstances working remotely however will have to travel for offline data collection as needed and meetings with Co-investigator.

Kindly send your CV via email to the Principal Investigator and Co-investigator on the following email id by 8th February, 2022

tapblorereseach@gmail.com

Principal Investigator: KP/ Ketki Ranade, Faculty, TISS, Mumbai

<https://www.tiss.edu/view/9/employee/ketki-ranade/>

Co-investigator (contact person):

Mohan S Raju: 9902582528

Only shortlisted candidates will be informed about the interview.